

TRAVTALK

THE NEWSPAPER OF THE TRAVEL INDUSTRY

Published from : ★ India ★ Middle East

Re-connect and re-strategise @

Countdown to the Gulf Travel Show is now in session, save the dates for November 23-24, 2020 which promises two days of networking with the industry leaders, stakeholders and partners from across the globe.

Strengthening partnerships across ME

Beverly Au Yong, Area Director, Singapore Tourism Board, Middle East said, "The Gulf Travel Show gives us an opportunity to strengthen our existing partnerships and look out for new opportunities that will come our way at this networking event. This show also allows to us to maintain our presence in the region by giving us a chance to showcase latest developments in Singapore."

Re-connecting with the trade

Christos Demetriou, Regional Office Director GCC and Middle East – Cyprus Tourist Office Dubai said, "Cyprus' participation in the Gulf Travel Show will offer us the chance to reconnect with the travel and tourism sector and reignite the tourism engine for a promising future. It will be a great opportunity to meet with old and new stakeholders of the industry."

Middle East's First and Only Virtual Travel Show

Resume, Restart, Reconnect, Reimagine, Rethink, Reengage and Reignite TRAVEL

sonia.butalia@ddppl.com, +919650311774

23rd and 24th
November
2020

Media Partner

Platinum Partner

Gold Partner

Middle East: Highest spending market

Paul Wilson, Executive Vice President – Commercial – Cross Hotels and Resorts said, "ME region has the highest spending expats and local markets, that we wish to welcome back into our astonishing destinations in Bali, Thailand, and Vietnam. We will showcase our entrepreneurial energy, and the focus of the business and why you should do business with us."

Showcasing rich tourism products for ME

Dananjay Regmi, CEO, Nepal Tourism Board said, "Since Gulf Travel Show is making an exclusive travel and tourism expo in digital platform with focus on Gulf region, Nepal is partnering with it to promote and showcase its rich tourism products and activities in the Middle East market. Therefore, we believe this can be useful platform to participate in this show."

New spectrum of experiences

Kush Kapoor, CEO - Roseate Hotels and Resorts said, "We are excited to participate at Gulf Travel Show and explore business opportunities with the best of the hospitality trade present here. Roseate Hotels and Resorts offers a portfolio of ultraluxury hotels and resorts, each with a distinct experience to guests. We are also evaluating other opportunities in the ever growing hospitality and tourism market."

Connecting with new opportunities and markets

Leslie Nelson, Head of Customer Experience & Integrations – Travel Junction said, "The Gulf Travel show in its virtual format provides us with a great opportunity to reach out to those networks and markets. We will be showcasing our amazing range of highly valued and specialised travel products."

If you want your events onlisted here, please email to talk@ddppl.com

For more information, log on to <http://travtalkmiddleeast.com/>