Calling all travel professionals to join

Yamina Sofo, Director, Sales & Marketing – German National Tourist Office, Gulf countries said, “The Webinar is a perfect platform to reach out to the travel professionals in the region. We would like to invite travel and tourism professionals i.e. OTAs, Travel agencies, Tour operators, MICE representatives and media in the GCC region. The webinar provides an overview of the destination of Germany as a travel and tourism destination that perfectly fits GCC traveller requirements. The agents will benefit by attending the sessions as they can explore the diversity of the destination and its highlights through an informative and educational webinar with an opportunity for instant and live interaction.”

Diversified region in Germany

Natalie Dietl, Sales & Marketing Overseas, State Tourist Board, Southwest Germany said, “The sunny SouthWest Germany marks a very special destination for holiday seekers with its diverse attractions and facilities. Starting with its historic cities, Heidelberg is one of Europe’s most romantic cities with its castle, river and university, while Stuttgart, the region’s capital, boasts art museums, and operas. In SouthWest Germany, high-quality dining doesn’t get any better as no other area in Germany can match the number of Michelin-starred restaurants. Furthermore, the unspoiled countryside is perfect for hiking and biking, from the Black Forest to Lake Constance, offers family fun and entertainment.”

Germany
The travel destination

Discover breathtaking beauty of Germany

Christian Gross, Head of Incoming/MICE - Black Forest Highlands (Hochschwarzwald Tourismus GmbH) said, “Breathtaking nature, a wide range of leisure activities and lively culture are some of Hochschwarzwald offerings to its guests. With the world-famous Lake Titisee, the idyllic Schluchsee as well as countless hiking trails and mountain bike trails, the region in the heart of the Black Forest is one of Germany’s most popular travel destinations for nature lovers and active vacationers. Recreation seekers also get their money’s worth in the Upper Black Forest: switching off and refueling is not difficult in one of the region’s high-class hotels with an almost unlimited range of wellness offers.”

Discerning Shopping destination for travellers

Angela Rieger, Sales & Tourism Manager - Outletcity Metzingen said, “Internationally renowned designers such as Valentino, Karl Lagerfeld, Versace and the world’s largest BOSS outlet, Outletcity Metzingen is on a par with major fashion capitals around the world and was rated as Europe’s Outlet No. 1 in 2020. The outstanding selection of over 130 brands of major designers is represented in flagship outlet stores, and up to 70% reductions that make a visit worthwhile all year round. In addition to fashion brands the latest opening of a redeveloped former soap factory added a selection of brands in the home and living range to the outlet and a health and safety concept is in place to ensure a safe shopping experience for all visitors.”
